Head Teacher: Miss Joanna Price

18th September 2017

Ramsbury Primary School has become a National Support School

We are extremely proud to announce that Ramsbury Primary School has been appointed as a National Support School. This means that the staff have been selected for top roles supporting schools in challenging circumstances and training new teachers across the country.

Miss Price has become one of more than 75 Head Teachers to be appointed to the role of National Leader of Education in the latest recruitment round by the National College for Teaching and Leadership (NCTL).

National Leaders of Education (NLE) along with other school staff use their knowledge and experience to provide additional leadership capability in other schools in need of support. They also have responsibility for developing the next generation of NLEs and National Support Schools.

The National College for Teaching and Leadership has responsibility for the appointment of NLEs and the quality of the NLE programme. There are now over 1,250 NLEs across England. Roger Pope, Chair of the National College for Teaching and Leadership (NCTL), said:

“I’d like to congratulate Miss Price and Ramsbury Primary School on being appointed as a National Leader of Education and National Support School. They should be very proud of this achievement.

National Leaders of Education are at the heart of school improvement. They support other schools and develop the next generation of leaders. At NCTL, we want to do all we can to support their work.”

Our role as a National Support School will also strengthen the school itself and its ability to provide the best education for our children.
